REV1 Ventures - Success Stories

"Our smart and open business environment provides avenues for people interested in technology to enter the market," said Don DePerro, CEO of the Columbus Chamber.

Columbus: Top Tech Startup City

For our December seminar, ATP welcomes a guest speaker from REV1 Ventures, a top tech incubator in Columbus with success stories like Cover My Meds and CrossChx.

Columbus is recognized as the #11 city in tech start-ups (Cleveland and Cincinnati are #40 and #41).

REV1 and its partners in Columbus, such Innovate New Albany and the Dublin Entrepreneurial Center, work together to:

- Get start-ups out of the garage and into an office
- Amenities - such as heat, air conditioning and chairs
- Expertly provide structure and business advice
- Find money: venture capital, tax incentives, crowd funding
- Identify market strategy and launch products

Our host for October is Ohio University-Dublin Center. In April 2015, OU opened a new 86,000-square-foot Integrated Education Center on the Post Road campus, which houses Ohio University programs from the various schools and facilitates academic partnerships with Columbus State Community College and other Central Ohio colleges, universities and high schools..

Our December seminar is a great time to bring your boss or another colleague to experience ATP for themselves. We'll see you there!
