Protecting Privacy in the State of Ohio

For our October seminar, ATP is excited to welcome Associate Assistant Attorney General Melissa Szozda Smith. Ms. Smith is Director of Consumer Education and Outreach Director of the Identity Theft Unit in the Consumer Protection Section of the Office of Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine.

Ms. Smith's presentation will touch on some recent areas of privacy concern and how they affect, as well as related Ohio initiatives. These include:

- The advent of chip-ready debit/credit cards, and their impact on business
- Privacy and the Google Streetview car
- Google and Safari cookie settings
- Public data breach cases

Ms. Smith has been with the Office of the Ohio Attorney General since 2008. She received both a Master of Arts in Criminal Justice and her Doctor of Law degree from the University of Toledo.

Our host for October is Cologix, providing reliable, secure, scalable data center and interconnection solutions from 24 prime interconnection locations across 9 strategic North American edge markets. Over 1,600 leading network, managed services, cloud, media, content, financial services, and enterprise customers trust Cologix to support their business critical infrastructure and connect them to customers, vendors and partners.

Our October seminar is a great time to bring your boss or another colleague to experience ATP for themselves. We'll see you there!
