In today's business world, it takes a village to do almost anything. The success of a team is directly proportional to how efficiently its members collaborate. Does your business have a collaboration strategy?

Please join us in December for a great interactive session that includes:

- A look at current communication tools and associated challenges
- A collaboration demonstration focused on eliminating your communications challenges
- An executive-level conversation about why companies invest in collaboration technologies (executive conversation)
- An overview of Top of Mind technologies (mobile, virtual, social, visual) and
- Roundtable Q&A

Our presenter is Rick Sexton, a Collaboration Business Impact Specialist with Cisco Systems. Rick is a 30-year communications industry veteran who joined Cisco in 2001 after stints with Active Voice and Cincinnati Bell. Currently Rick focuses on helping small and mid-size customers evaluate collaboration solutions including IP Telephony, TelePresence, IP Contact Centers and Hosted Cloud Communications).

NOTE VENUE: This meeting will be held at the Cologix DataCenter (picture above). The address is 555 Scherers Ct. Columbus, OH 43085.

Plan now to join us on December 10th, 2014. The meeting will kick off at 11:00 A.M. with registration beginning at 10:30 A.M. This is an easy, affordable opportunity for learning, lunch and networking. We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Laura Engle
